

Jure Gombač, PhD

Research Fellow, Historian, Sociologist.

Jure Gombač studied History and Sociology at the Faculty of Arts, University of Ljubljana. He later worked at the University of Ljubljana, University of Primorska in Koper, Slovenia and University of Trieste, Italy. He was involved in various international research projects with the University of Bologna, Jakobstad Svenska Arbetarinstitut, (Finland), University Ca` Foscari (Venice, Italy) University of Zagreb, Croatia ... At the moment he works as a researcher for the Institute for Slovenian Emigration Studies. He has a Ph.D in the field of Sociology and his research lies mainly in the field of forced migrations from Yugoslavia, East and Central Europe after the Second World War.

Marina Luksic-Hacin. PhD

Head of the Institute for Slovenian Emigration Studies ZRC SAZU.

PhD in Sociology, research fellow and head of Institute for Slovenian Emigration Studies ZRC SAZU, assistant professor at the University of Ljubljana and University of Nova Gorica.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Migration and Intercultural Relations:

- migration theories and policies
- multiculturalism
- acculturation, socialisation and resocialization
- national identity

ONGOING PROJECTS

- National and Cultural Identity of Slovenian Emigration
- Emigration of Slovenians to Germany 1880-1973
- Internet as a Medium for Preserving National and Cultural Heritage among Slovenians Around the World
- The State of Archive and Museum Material at Slovenian Emigrants in Germany

